

THE COLUMBIA

Where victorian grandeur meets 70s charm

THE VENUE

Built in 1856, this secret west London spot comprises of 5 Grade II listed French Renaissance townhouses, this historic building has hosted the likes of Amy Winehouse, Lenny Kravitz, Stereophonics, Iggy Pop, Scissor Sisters, Slade, and Kings of Leon staying with us, with The Columbia becoming a home away from home for them whilst on the road.

Fun fact, after living at the residence for 6 months, Oasis even decided to name their song 'Columbia' after many 'nights of nonsense' at the hotel.

Whether you're after grand period details, mural covered walls or a simple blank canvas, the Columbia has several versatile event spaces that can be perfectly tailored to your event.

WINDSOR

The largest open plan room with original period features, a large private balcony overlooking kensington gardens, floor to cieling windows and a beautiful ornate cieling. This space has a timeless and sophisticated feel with original classical architecture including vintage chandeliers and pale wood polished floors.
